

The Tove Valley Centre

'Building Towcester's future'

The Tove Valley Centre will be a new community facility built close to the Shires housing estate in Towcester.

Building work is intended to start in Spring 2015.

The centre will act as a community hub for Towcester and the surrounding villages.

The centre will provide:

- 290 seater auditorium, including exhibition and performance space with professional audio visual and lighting facilities
- 100 seater hall for use as a community meeting space and for youth activities
- 3/4 smaller meeting rooms available for community groups plus crèche
- Informal meeting space with cafe

All the facilities will be available for private hire.

The centre will be registered as a place of Worship and managed by Tove Valley Baptist Fellowship.
